Trump: US fires will stop when it gets cooler!

PRESIDENT Trump has dismissed concerns over climate change on a visit to fire-ravaged California, telling a concerned official there it would "start getting cooler".

Blazes in California, Oregon and Washington state have burned almost two million hectares (5m acres) of land and killed at least 36 people since early August.

Climate change sceptic Trump (above) blames the crisis on poor forest management.

Meanwhile, Democratic presidential candidate Joe Biden called Mr Trump "a climate arsonist".

He told an event in Delaware that four more years of his opponent in the White House would see "more of America ablaze".

During his visit to Sacramento, Mr Trump told an official: "It'll start getting cooler, you just watch... I don't think science knows actually."

Women lose pension case

TWO women affected by changes to the state pension age have lost their Court of Appeal challenge.

Julie Delve, 62, and Karen Glynn, 63, backed by campaign group BackTo60, had challenged Department for Work and Pensions' decision to increase the state pension age from 60 to 66.

Yesterday, senior Court of Appeal judges dismissed their case, saying introducing the same state pension age for men and women did not amount to unlawful discrimination.

TAKING THE HISS!

A MAN abided by strict face covering rules when he got on a bus – by wearing a huge SNAKE.

The man, who was clearly keen not to spread COVID-19, calmly took a seat with the boa constrictor wrapped round his face.

Shocked passengers watched on as he removed the potentially killer reptile from around his neck and allowed it to slither around the bus's handrails.

One witness, who did not wish to give her name, said the sight on the Swinton to Manchester service was "definitely entertaining".

The 46-year-old said: "He had it wrapped around his face like a mask getting on the bus."

"At first I thought he had a really funky mask on, then he let it crawl around the handrails."

"No-one was really bothered on the bus but a man behind took a video. It was definitely entertaining."

Another said: "I shat myself."

GROPER: Charlie Elphicke

FORMER Dover MP and "sexual predator" Charlie Elphicke has been jailed for two years for sexually assaulting two women, about a decade apart.

The disgraced father-of-two showed no emotion as judge Mrs Justice Whipple sentenced him to an immediate prison term for three counts of sexual assault, following a month-long trial which heard trained lawyer Elphicke lied to police, top Tories and his wife.

It has since emerged that 49-year-old Elphicke's daughter Charlotte, 20, had become estranged from him, while his wife, Natalie Elphicke, announced on social media that she had ended their 25-year marriage less than an hour after his conviction at Southwark Crown Court in July.

At his sentencing yesterday, the judge said: "You're a sexual predator who used your success and respectability as a cover."

One of Elphicke's victims, in a statement read to court, described the psychological harm she suffered, adding: "I still remember how he made me feel, I still know those feelings of fear and helplessness."

The other said she routinely could not trust men, but took comfort in the conviction, saying: "I feel heard. Thank you."

Elphicke said in a statement that he would appeal the conviction.

Prosecutor Eloise Marshall QC previously described Elphicke as "an accomplished liar", and said the witness testimonies from the complainants were "almost identical", despite being from two women who did not know each other.

The court heard how the first offence took place when Elphicke invited a woman in her early 30s to share a drink with him while his children were asleep and his wife was away in the summer of 2007 – the first time she had been absent since the birth of their son.

The woman said that Elphicke asked her about bondage and sex, then kissed her and groped her breast before chasing her around his home.

Breaking down in court, she told jurors: "I was just shocked, really, really shocked."

"He was saying really bizarre things like, 'I'm a naughty Tory'."

"He was trying to grope me and try to grab my bum."

The second woman said Elphicke also tried to kiss her and then groped her when they met for a drink in Westminster in April 2016.

She said: "He had his mouth open, continually trying to kiss me."

She said she spurned his sexual advances, telling jurors she was repulsed by him.

He assaulted her again the following month when he ran his hand up her thigh towards her groin.

Elphicke had denied assaulting either woman.

HOME SEC: I'D DOB IN NEIGHBOURS

THE Home Secretary has said she would report breaches of the "rule of six" coronavirus restrictions, while suggesting that families stopping to talk in the street could be breaking the new laws.

Priti Patel said she would report neighbours if it was a gathering of more than six, as she defended the Government over an exemption which says larger groups will be allowed to go hunting.

It comes as the national chairman of the Police Federation of England and Wales called for guidance over enforcement of the measures.

When asked if she would call the police on her neighbours if they breached the new rule, Ms Patel told the BBC yesterday: "I think anybody would want to take responsibility and ensure we're not spreading this awful disease and therefore if I saw gatherings of more than six people clearly I would report that."

Appearing on Radio 4's Today programme, Ms Patel said that two families of four stopping for a chat on the way to the park is "absolutely mingling".

"You have got to put this in the context of coronavirus and keeping distance, wearing masks," she said.

Young most hit by rise in UK unemployment

THE UK unemployment rate has risen to its highest level for two years, official figures show.

It grew to 4.1 per cent in the three months to July, compared with 3.9 per cent previously.

Young people were particularly hard hit, with those aged 16 to 24 suffering the biggest drop in employment compared with other age groups.

Firms continue to remove staff from payrolls as they prepare for the end of the Government's furlough scheme.

Some 695,000 UK workers have gone from the payrolls of British companies since the March lockdown.

The Government's Job Retention Scheme will begin tapering off next month before ending on October 31.

COVID deaths fall below 100

WEEKLY registered deaths involving COVID-19 have fallen below 100 for the first time since the lockdown, in part due to the August Bank Holiday, official figures show.

There were 78 deaths registered in England and Wales in the week ending September 4, 23 fewer than the previous week, the Office for National Statistics said, adding that the bank holiday on August 31 would have contributed to a lower number of deaths registered that week.

Its data shows dips in registered deaths from all causes in the weeks ending May 8 and May 29 – which both contained bank holidays.

It is the 20th consecutive week that the number of registered deaths involving COVID-19 has fallen.

RUMOURS OF ROMANCE

By JUSTIN DUNN

news@sundaysport.co.uk

IS former Doctor Who star Matt Smith the spawniest man alive?

The not-exactly-Brad-Pitt-looking actor has enjoyed flings with some of showbiz's finest women – and he might have bagged yet another.

Matt, 37, recently spent an evening with Emilia Clarke, Princess Daenerys Targaryen in Game of Thrones, sparking romance rumours.

The pair – who appeared together in the 2015 flick Terminator: Genisys – walked through London's Soho together after eating at a swanky diner.

Racy naked scenes in GoT helped shoot Emilia, 33, to international stardom, while Matt gained even more exposure playing Prince Philip in hit series The Crown.

Matt split from actress Lily James nine months ago, having previously dated model Daisy Lowe, the daughter of rock star Gavin Rossdale.

Emilia – named Esquire magazine's Sexiest Woman Alive in 2015 – recently split from director and writer Charlie McDowell, the son of actor Malcolm McDowell.

'Throw book' at sex-slave cult heiress

PROSECUTORS want a judge to throw the book at Seagram's booze empire heiress Clare Bronfman (above), 41, for her role as a high-ranking member of the Nxivm sex-slave cult by sentencing her to at least five years.

They argue that her plea deal of around two years in jail is nowhere near enough for her crimes.

Ahead of sentencing at the end of the month, prosecutors Tanya Hajjar and Mark Lesko wrote: "For years, Bronfman leveraged her colossal wealth to recruit individuals, often women with no legal status in the US, into Nxivm-affiliated organisations."

"She secured a workforce of individuals desperate to earn a living and dependent on her and on Nxivm and cult leader Keith Raniere."

In their report to the Brooklyn court they claim that her support for Raniere – who last year was found guilty of racketeering and sex trafficking – "enabled him to perpetrate his crimes."

Narcotics agent 'laundered cash for drug cartel'

A STAR narcotics agent admitted conspiring to launder money with the same Colombian cartel he was sworn to fight.

The disgraced agent, Jose Izarray, pleaded guilty to 19 charges, including bank fraud and having diverted millions of dollars in drug proceeds from Drug Enforcement Administration control.

Izarray had been entrusted with the U.S. government's use of front companies, shell bank accounts and couriers to combat drug trafficking.

After the charges were read out in court, Izarray said: "I'm atoning for my sins. I want to move on."

Izarray, 45, had been charged with filing false reports and ordering DEA staff to wire money slated for undercover stings to international accounts he and associates controlled. He faces decades in jail.

STRAIGHT, MIDDLE-AGED WHITE MAN IS BBC'S BEST PAID

By SUZIE SHELTON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

GARY Lineker is once again the Beeb's highest earner, according to new figures – but he is taking a pay cut.

An announcement yesterday said the Match of the Day host is reducing his salary.

The fact that a white, straight, middle-class man is the highest paid BBC star is – ironic, seeing as how the Beeb has been at the vanguard of boosting "diversity".

And Lineker himself is one of the Beeb's most "woke" stars, recently offering to house a refugee at his mansion.

Talent

The names of BBC talent earning more than £150,000-a-year have been published – a move previously instigated by the Government.

Ex-England and Spurs footballer Lineker took home £1.75m, according to the figures, which cover the period until the end of March this year – before any cut.

BBC Radio 2 breakfast show DJ Zoe Ball shoots up the list – on £1.36m – making her the highest-paid woman in the Top 10.

However, this doesn't include her presenting work for Strictly Come Dancing's It Takes Two.

Pay packets made through BBC Studios – the broadcaster's commercial arm and responsible for the likes of Strictly Come Dancing, Antiques Roadshow and Doctor Who – are not disclosed. Graham Norton takes about £725k for his Radio 2 show and some TV work, but not his chat show.

And Radio 2 DJ Steve Wright is on about £475k.

Newsreader and election night host Huw Edwards is on more than £465k, while Fiona Bruce takes home more than £450k for her work on Question Time.

THE BBC'S TOP 10 BIGGEST EARNERS

1. Gary Lineker – £1.75m
2. Zoe Ball – £1.36m
3. Graham Norton – £725,000
4. Steve Wright – £475,000
5. Huw Edwards – £465,000
6. Fiona Bruce – £450,000
7. Vanessa Feltz – £405,000
8. Lauren Laverne – £395,000
9. Alan Shearer – £390,000
10. Stephen Nolan – £390,000

Meanwhile, BBC Radio London's Vanessa Feltz is on about £405k and Desert Island Discs host Lauren Laverne makes the Top 10 for the first time, with more than £395k.

Broadcaster Stephen Nolan is on more than £390k for his radio work, including 5 Live, and Lineker's Match of the Day pal Alan Shearer is on roughly the same figure.

Laverne took over from Kirsty Young on the Radio 4 programme, while Bruce followed in the footsteps of David Dimbleby.

Transparency

The BBC previously opposed the publication of salaries as a "poacher's charter", but then-boss Lord Hall later said that he welcomed the "transparency".

The salaries are being published amid questions about how the BBC will be funded in future.

The licence fee model is guaranteed until December 31 2027 – the end of the current charter.

Decriminalisation of licence fee evasion could also be on the cards, but the BBC has warned that switching to a civil system would cost the broadcaster more than £200 million each year.

The BBC began means-testing the free TV licence for over-75s in August, having previously delayed its introduction because of the pandemic.

BBC director-general Tim Davie said Lineker has signed a new five-year contract with the BBC, adding: "And he has done so at a saving of nearly a quarter over his last contract."

ROO RAP TOWN IS 'CHEATS CAPITAL'

A TOWN where footie ace Wayne Rooney was collared for drink driving is a hotbed of SEX CHEATS, new research has found.

The cheating capital of the UK is posh Wilmslow in Cheshire, according to a new map of the country's 360 adultery hotspots.

The town – a big favourite with footballers – has been officially named as the place where a husband or wife is most likely to have an affair. Wilmslow has 1,498 people cheating – around 5% of the population of 24,497.

Affairs

The interactive Infidelity Index allows users to search a city, town or postcode to discover how many people are having affairs in any locality. This year's table from IllicitEncounters.com – the UK's leading dating site for married people – shows that cheating has risen by 5% nationally over the last year despite COVID-19.

The main reason for the rise is 'lockdown cabin fever' with people unhappy with their partner and seeking an affair after becoming fed-up stuck at home.

In 2017, former England striker Wayne Rooney (left) was done for drink driving after being stopped in Wilmslow while driving a black Volkswagen Beetle belonging to Laura Simpson, who said she kissed and hugged the star during a booze bender in neighbouring Alderley Edge.

In second place was Beaconsfield in Bucks and third was Esher in Surrey.

Kendall says she's a lover of the weed

KENDALL Jenner is a dothead.

The reality star confessed her love for mind-bending marijuana on a recent episode of Sibling Rivalry with Kate Hudson and Oliver Hudson.

Kendall (above), 24, shared: "I am a stoner. 'No-one knows that so that's the first time I've ever really said anything out there.'"

But Jenner isn't the only Kardashian-Jenner family member who likes to dabble in the weed.

Kim Kardashian revealed last year that she enjoys using CBD products and even threw a CBD-themed baby shower ahead of welcoming her fourth child with Kanye West via a surrogate.

Kim told sister Kourtney Kardashian's lifestyle blog Poosh last autumn: "I started taking CBD and it really changed things for me."

"It calms me down automatically."

Recreational marijuana is legal in the state of California.

Army barracks plan to house boat migrants

MIGRANTS who have crossed the Channel in small boats are to be housed in military barracks while their asylum claims are processed, it has been announced.

Folkestone and Hythe District Council confirmed that the development was taking place following government instructions.

But the Home Office has been accused of secrecy over the plans.

Around 400 people, including families, are to be housed in temporary accommodation at Napier Barracks in Folkestone, Kent, from next week.

They are understood to include migrants who have crossed to the UK in boats.

Local MP Damian Collins says he "cannot support" the decision and as called on the Home Office to find "more suitable" accommodation.

A group of 20 FEMEN activists staged the topless demo - chanting that their breasts "are not obscene" after the incident at the Musée d'Orsay in Paris.

The protest was staged to show support for a student, named locally as Jeanne, who was barred from entering the museum because the dress she was wearing was deemed "too revealing".

Images of the protest were shared by FEMEN France on Twitter, as the group said: "The obscenity is in your eyes!"

WORSE THAN A HORROR MOVIE

VICTIM: Tammy (right) and (below) with Oberhansley. HORROR: Blanton's home

ON TRIAL: Oberhansley faces a life sentence

THE trial of a man charged with raping, killing, dismembering and then cooking and eating the body parts of his girlfriend will be "worse than a horror film", prosecutors have warned.

Joseph Oberhansley, 39, went on trial on the sixth anniversary of the date mutilated remains of his girlfriend, Tammy Jo Blanton, were found under a tent in her bathtub.

He is charged with murder, rape, abuse of a corpse and burglary.

In opening remarks to jurors, prosecutor Jeremy Mull said they would see gruesome photographs of the interior of Ms Blanton's house that were "worse than anything you'd see in a horror movie".

He alleged the 46-year-old clerk "met a fate that's very difficult to describe" at the hands of Oberhansley, who Ms Blanton broke up with just before her death.

The weekend before her death, Mr Mull said Oberhansley went to Ms Blanton's home in Jeffersonville, Indiana, and held her captive and raped her.

Jurors warned at start of brain-eating cannibal trial

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

When she went to work on Monday, she sneaked some extra clothes into her work bag and stayed the next few nights with friends.

But Ms Blanton was determined not to live in fear and had her father Darry come over to the property and change the locks.

Days later, when she failed to show up for work, Ms Blanton's concerned co-workers contacted police who went to the home.

Joseph Oberhansley answered the door and was evasive when cops asked about Ms Blanton's whereabouts.

Officers soon entered the home and found a grisly scene.

Mutilated

Ms Blanton's body was in the bathroom, covered with a vinyl camping tent and partially mutilated.

Parts of her heart, lungs and brain were missing.

They found a "plate with what appeared to be skull bone and blood" on it as well as parts of her organs in a skillet, and blood was found on a pair of tongs.

An autopsy would later show she had died of sharp force trauma to the head, neck and torso.

Oberhansley claimed two armed, black, male intruders had killed her.

But he was arrested and taken into custody for questioning.

If found guilty, Oberhansley faces the maximum sentence of life without parole.

Homeless hotel slams sh*tting in street claim

A HOTEL has hit back at claims its guests are responsible for a spike in anti-social behaviour with brawls, street drinking and PUBLIC SHITTING now a daily occurrence.

The Crown Hotel in Longton, Stoke-on-Trent, has been offering rooms to the homeless to get them off the streets since the start of the coronavirus pandemic.

But traders blame the arrangement with Stoke-on-Trent City Council and the charity Brighter Futures for an increase in trouble in the town centre.

The issues include a man being caught on CCTV "doing a number two" behind a café and a bloke stood naked in the street "with everything hanging out" in front of kids.

Some have even gone as far as to nickname the Staffs town "lawless Longton".

Now the managers of the Crown Hotel have offered to meet with businesses to try to resolve the problems after a petition was set up calling for the homeless to be moved.

A hotel spokesman said: "Our guests are very well-behaved in the hotel and have been a pleasure to help.

"We've had no reports of anyone running naked around the area. As far as I am aware this hasn't happened."

STUDENTS OF SEX!

Undergrads turning to vice as bar jobs dry up

SKINT students are selling sex to make ends meet as jobs in the COVID-19 hit hospitality industry dry up.

Undergraduates who would normally supplement their loans by serving pints or waiting on tables are now turning their hand to servicing lusty punters for extra cash.

Figures show the percentage of those considering sex or adult work in a "cash crisis" has nearly doubled compared with last year.

Plugging

Statistics from Save The Student show that 10 per cent would consider sex work in a financial emergency.

In a separate study, seven per cent of students said they had actually turned to sex or adult work during the pandemic as a way of plugging the gap in their finances.

Some 77 per cent were female and 22 per cent male, with one per cent preferring not to say.

Rose, which is not her real name, turned to online sex work after she effectively lost her job in a restaurant as a result of lockdown.

By JAYNE FERGUSON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

She says she is also classed as high-risk in relation to COVID-19 so working through a subscription website was "safer" and "financially easier".

Rose says relatives do not know about her recent venture into sex work and they wouldn't understand.

She explains that without the work, which she describes as "performing and modelling", she'd be "struggling financially".

"Nothing below the waist" is the line she says she has not crossed.

Rose, in her 20s, says she "loves" her new source of income and refers to it as "one of the best things" she has ever done.

She added: "I used to be anorexic and now I am the most body confident I have ever been in my life."

"It's very liberating. I'm in control of my own content and of my own body and I can do whatever I want with it because you can set your own levels."

Her boyfriend knows about her work and is supportive. She says she earns hundreds, sometimes thousands, of pounds a month.

Saggy pants ban U-turn

A CITY in Florida has overturned its "saggy pants" ban from 2007, with officials saying it disproportionately targeted black men.

The Opa-locka City Commission voted 4-1 to repeal the legislation affecting men, as well as a 2013 ordinance that said women could also be subject to a civil citation for wearing pants that exposed their undies.

Vice Mayor Chris Davis, who sponsored the repeal, said: "I was never in support of it."

"It disproportionately affected a part of our population - young, African American men."

The repeal has to be approved again at a commission meeting before it's official.

SECURITY MAN NICKED FOR FAKE COP INCIDENT

A SECURITY guard was nicked for impersonating a police officer, after trying to pull over a REAL off-duty cop for speeding.

Omar Forde, 40, told police he was passed by a swerving vehicle, adding: "The gentleman flew past me, and his car danced. So I thought he might have been intoxicated."

Forde tried to pull alongside the car to tell the off-duty officer - later identified as Zachary Prince - to slow down, only to have Prince start flashing his own lights and ask if he was being pulled over.

Forde (left) was dressed in a vest bearing the name of his security firm and carried a badge, gun and taser.

Officers at the scene in Casselberry, Florida, noted citizens "would mistake this for a law enforcement officer".

Forde has denied charges of impersonating an officer and driving with a suspended licence and has been released on bail.

AS C4 REPEATS THE CLASSIC COMEDY-DRAMA, MEET....

SHAMELESS BABES WHO GO BRA-LESS

DURING lockdown, as film and telly companies were forced to stop production, viewers had to put up with repeats.

A lot of repeats.

But while three-year-old editions of Homes Under The Attic - Abroad may not truly justify a re-run, others are welcome.

We talk, of course, about C4 screening the first series of Shameless.

For the uninitiated, Shameless

By ROY DURRIDGE

neil@sundaysport.co.uk

is the story of the dysfunctional Gallagher clan on the fictional Chatsworth estate in Manchester.

The irony, of course, is that the original Chatsworth - a few miles away in Derbyshire - is one of England's loveliest country houses.

Its Manchester namesake in Shameless is anything but lovely - a seething cauldron of vice, crime, drugs, booze and stinking despair.

While it may not sound like a comedy, it is, with the head of the Gallagher family - drunken dope fiend Frank - lurching through life poncing off the State, family and anyone unfortunate enough to cross his path.

In 11 series over nine years, a host of actors played roles in Shameless - and a good many of them have gone topless.

The ladies, we're talking about, obviously!

MY FAVOURITE CHARACTER...

I'M from Manchester so I know parts of Shameless are really true to life!

My favourite character has to be Frank Gallagher, played by David Threlfall.

He's a real ratbag and always either drunk or drugged - and he'd steal the fillings from your teeth if he thought he could get away with it.

But he can be quite charming, and hasn't every estate has got a Frank Gallagher?

My most Shameless secret? I like to have sex three times a day!

MY FAVOURITE CHARACTER...

MY favourite character has to be Libby Croker, played by Pauline McLynn.

You'll know Pauline as the housekeeper Mrs Doyle in Father Ted but this is a very different role!

She plays a librarian who has narcolepsy – she falls asleep at random moments.

And in a scene that you would never have seen on Father Ted, Libby goes topless in a sex session with Frank Gallagher.

She gets back-scuttled and everything!

My most Shameless moment? I had sex in a car alongside a busy road – anyone passing could have seen the lot!

MY FAVOURITE CHARACTER...

MY favourite character has to be Mimi Maguire, played by Tina Malone. She is just awful – but you see real-life Mimi Maguires all over the place.

Mimi is a real nasty piece of work and sells drugs to kids and all sorts, but she's a really good mum and would defend her kids with her life.

At one point, a whole riot squad is needed to restrain her after she tries to free her daughter from the police station.

My most Shameless secret? My favourite sex toy is a blow-up BUTT PLUG!

FATAL MEETING: Marcella Davis had a baby to care for when she was murdered

WE CONTINUE OUR SHOCKING SLAIN BY 'PSYCHO' BUTCHER

FREED...TO
AGAIN

IT was July 1979 and Paul Brumfitt, then 24, and his 16-year-old girlfriend had been arguing.

The row had devastating results as it led to deranged Brumfitt going on an eight-day spree of terror.

During his rampage, he beat 59-year-old shopkeeper Sidney Samuel to death in Tilbury, Essex.

He then jumped on a ferry and went on the run in Denmark.

There, he strangled bus driver Teddy Laustrup, 40, in Esbjerg.

In August 1980, at the Old Bailey in London, Brumfitt pleaded guilty

By KOURTNEY KENNEDY
news@sundaysport.co.uk

to two counts of manslaughter on the grounds of diminished responsibility, as well as one of wounding. He was given three life terms.

Sentencing, Mr Justice Gibson said that Brumfitt suffered from psychopathic disorders which had resulted in a "permanent disability of mind".

But, despite his "permanent disability of mind" and three life sentences, he was freed in November 1994 after psychiatrists decided he no longer posed a threat to the community.

Promised

Marcella Ann Davis was 19, a single mother and a prostitute. She worked in the red light district of Wolverhampton to support her nine-month-old daughter, Dione. On the night of February 7, 1999, Marcella left her baby with a friend and took a taxi to Shakespeare Street, where she waited for punters. She promised to be back by 11pm.

She phoned the friend six times during the evening to check on Dione. Her last call was logged at 9.11pm, presumably just before she was picked up by Brumfitt.

Brumfitt, who had found a job as a council gardener, took her back to his flat in Woodsetton, Dudley.

It was there that he murdered the poor woman.

It's not known exactly how Marcella died because after the killing, Brumfitt took her body to a small yard he'd hired in Cooper Street, where he proceeded to dismember the corpse and set it alight.

The teenager was identified by her dental records and a small bunch of keys found in the ashes that matched the front and back doors of her house.

By the time he was arrested for Marcella's murder, Brumfitt had been with another prostitute on two occasions.

After his release from prison for the 1979 killings, Brumfitt was employed by Dudley Council as a temporary assistant gardener in May 1994.

When he went for his interview, Brumfitt had declared his previous conviction in accordance with the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act.

As part of his release from jail, he should have been assessed and placed under strict supervision by the Probation Service.

Brumfitt was released into a hostel for six months before the Home Secretary decided he was available for full release on licence.

Having secured a job with Dudley Council, he was free to go about his life as he saw fit, just as long as he stayed in regular contact with his probation officer.

There were constant check-ups and reports were written on his rehabilitation into the community. They would have been sent to the Home Office.

But Brumfitt regularly visited prostitutes after breaking up with a woman he'd married, a one-time prison visitor.

One of those prostitutes was Marcella.

When Brumfitt was arrested, he refused to say a word to officers for 30 hours before finally agreeing to talk.

Jailed

After his trial at Birmingham Crown Court in July 2000, he was jailed for life for the murder of Marcella.

He was handed another life sentence for the rape of a second prostitute on two occasions, three weeks after Marcella's murder.

He was cleared of raping a third woman.

Brumfitt was also placed on the sex offenders' register.

Mr Justice Jowett told him: "You are an evil, vicious man."

Marcella's mother, Allyson Parr, said: "She will always be in my thoughts as a loving daughter."

"I wish to express my gratitude to the police and the prosecuting counsel for bringing this case to a successful conclusion."

Detective Chief Inspector John Smith, who led the investigation, said: "Paul Brumfitt is quite clearly an evil, calculating man."

"We are talking about murder and rape. We would describe it as probably the most vicious and evil of crimes."

"It was extremely difficult to get inside this man's head. He refused to talk to us."

"When you're talking to someone for two days and they make no reply, you have to be incredibly patient."

"Eventually he decided he was going to talk."

But why had Brumfitt, a man described at his 1980 trial as having a "permanent disability of mind", been allowed back on the streets?

Edward Crew, the chief constable of West Midlands Police, was scathing about the decision to release the killer.

Blasting the way Brumfitt was able to walk the streets and kill again, Mr Crew said: "If it wasn't for the tenacity and expertise of the senior investigating officer, that man would still be on the streets

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

SO-CALLED 'NEW NORMAL' IS ANYTHING BUT!

FOR the foreseeable future we're not allowed to meet in groups of more than six people.

Great news if you're a member of Enid Blyton's Famous Five – but not so great for her Secret Seven.

Or S Club 7. Or The Magnificent Seven. Or the Walton sextuplets who presumably now can't see their vulnerable-aged folks.

The G7 group of the most advanced economies of the world – which includes the UK – is clearly bugged for now.

As are the EU's remaining 27 country leaders' meetings.

And it's obviously disastrous news, too, if you've ever wanted to emulate Seven Brides for Seven Brothers, The Dirty Dozen or Twelve Little Indians.

Great news, though, if you just happen to fall into a grouping that can cheerfully ignore these new rules that the rest of us can get fined up to thousands of pounds for ignoring.

Shagpot

If you're one of those families we often read about who have 20-odd kids and forever demand newer houses as though it's someone else's fault you keep on having kids – paid for by taxpayers, natch – fear not, you freakishly-virile shagpot, you're off the hook.

Weddings, too, get a slight reprieve, so you are allowed up to 30 socially distanced guests celebrating alongside you, as long as they're all wearing body-length condoms and foil hats.

The same number is also applied to funerals – although seeing as the vast majority of people have stopped dying of COVID-19, there might not be too many chances to complain about the lame wake buffet or chat up the widow's grieving daughter, who would of course have looked hot in black and especially in tears.

But the further down we read the rules, we realise it's as though they are written by a perpetually pissed pilot – as they just run out of runway.

Because we can still go to pubs, churches, mosques and restaurants, as long as we promise to obey social distancing limits that no-one has been doing ever since the towels came off the pumps at the Dog and Duck.

Yet still they are looking at extending the fans-in-footie-stadiums ban beyond the current October limit while at the same time they are encouraging people to take part in outdoor sport.

Floundering

The Government has finally taken absolute leave of its senses and blundering Boris is floundering.

This isn't the stupid phrase "the new normal" in any sense.

It's abnormal.

MEANWHILE, in Sweden, where lockdown was minimal, the vast majority of people are doing OK and death tolls are low because of "herd immunity" – the equivalent of getting potentially lethal measles early in life and thus becoming immune and never getting it again.

I don't remember too many nationwide lockdowns from those days, do you?

AN almost perfectly preserved Russian Ice Age cave bear from between 22,000 and 39,000 years ago has been discovered in the Arctic.

Researchers are desperately hoping to clone its intact DNA – which they are already doing with woolly mammoth remains.

Have none of these lunatics ever seen Jurassic Park?

Starkers thief sparks 30mph golf cart chase

A POSSE formed up to chase a man zooming round the neighbourhood on a golf cart – while stark NAKED!

The cart's owner, building boss Jason Quinnelly, was alerted to the loon by an employee.

He said: "I was in a state of shock. I couldn't believe it. I went outside. I saw the golf cart, and it was a naked white guy, flipping me the bird."

Quinnelly and his employees and a few others from the neighbourhood took off in their trucks to find the naked thief.

They had about six trucks in total, but Quinnelly says his cart goes about 30 mph, so he got some distance before they could catch up so they called police.

Quinnelly said: "She asked me to describe the golf cart, and I said ma'am it's the only golf cart being driven by a naked white guy."

Suspected joyrider, 42-year-old William Lawrence (above), was later arrested by police in Pritchard, Alabama, and charged with public lewdness and theft.

Fact me!

SNAILS have 14,000 teeth and some can even kill you!

Nude man had a tug in front of beachgoers

MORNING beachgoers were confronted with shocking scenes when a man allegedly went on a nude run before furiously masturbating in the surf.

Police were called to after receiving numerous complaints of the naked man walking along the beach.

The 51-year-old man allegedly approached sunbathers and "committed acts of indecency" in front of them.

When police arrived they say they gave the man a blanket before he was arrested and dragged off to the lock-up.

The man's belongings were located on Jimmys Beach at Hawks Nest, north of Port Stephens, New South Wales.

Unsurprisingly, police allege they included LSD, MDMA, Viagra and a quantity of dope.

SPORTS MISS LICKED ME OUT IN HOTEL

ACCUSED: McGrady is facing a string of charges

But school coach denies she's a lesbian

A LESBIAN teacher at a Christian school allegedly licked out two girl students in a park and on the floor of a hotel room, a court heard.

Mona McGrady, 62, had served as sports Miss and team coach when the incidents happened between 1995-97, it is alleged.

McGrady, who resigned from the school almost two decades ago, faces 13 counts of lewd and lascivious acts and one count of sexual penetration with a foreign object of a person under 18.

Detective Scott Meyer told the court that the first victim said their clothes were removed during an act of oral sex in a nearby park when she was 17 years old.

Drawing

She also told Meyer about another sexual act between the two at the time on the floor of a hotel during a basketball tournament.

Meyer said he was able to establish the date of the first alleged sexual act between the second victim and McGrady based on a drawing in her diary from 1995.

McGrady's defence lawyer Clint Parish, questioning her in the court, asked whether any of the allegations against her were true when she took the stand.

FAITH: McGrady's Christian school

By ROY DURRIDGE
news@sundaysport.co.uk

"No," McGrady once again responded.

Her testimony came as the defence sought to provide an "alternative narrative" to multiple prosecution witnesses who accused McGrady of sexual abuse.

McGrady described the closeness of her relationships with the teenage students as "investing in people."

Touch

Her decision to make these investments, she added, was founded on three core tenets: faithfulness, availability and teachability.

Guided by a senior's advice at the Mother Lode Christian School in Toulumne, California, she also said one of the central aspects of her mentorship was "appropriate touch".

The trial continues.

'Clothing removed during act of oral sex when she was just 17'

CELEBRITY babe Tallulah Willis wowed her online fans with a cheeky new photo.

The daughter of Hollywood legends Bruce Willis and Demi Moore posted this racy snap of her bare arse on Instagram, with the caption: "Honey, she's home."

The 26-year-old has always been open about her struggles with body dysmorphia, sobriety and an eating disorder.

But she looked great in the pic.

One fan said: "If I were Bruce, I'd still be bathing her."

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY

Dear Sam,

I'm a 36-year-old divorced woman and the other week I bumped into an old school pal I hadn't seen for 20 years.

I invited her round to my place for a meal and she revealed she hadn't made love to a man since her husband left her.

I said she must be feeling terribly frustrated but she laughed and said: "That does not mean I haven't had sex."

I didn't understand what she meant until she pushed me back on the sofa, easing my thighs apart. She pulled my panties aside and probed my pussy with her fingers and then the tip of her firm tongue.

It seemed like only seconds before I was experiencing the most powerful orgasm I have ever felt.

For the rest of the evening we sucked, licked and finger-fked each other to orgasm after orgasm.

Now I'm feeling confused. I don't know whether I've been a latent lesbian all along or whether this was just a boozy one-off.

TF, Derby

Sam says...

THIS is something you'll have to explore further with your friend.

Dear Sam,

MY mate's mum looks just like the actress Helen Mirren, except she's a bit younger than her and has got bigger tits – plus she always wears some sort of lurid pink all-in-one get-up and talks in a very broad Yorkshire accent.

Nonetheless, last week she sucked me off after we'd had a few drinks in the pub. She dragged me into an alley at the back of the boozer and whipped my rock-hard cock out.

She was pissed and took me right to the back of her throat. When I erupted in her gob, she swallowed the lot like a real trooper.

I was about to do her from behind when my mate came out of the pub to see what was going on. He was furious with us both and now he won't talk to me.

The trouble is he's got my best jumper and I need it back for a date with his sister!

HV, Leeds

Sam says...

YOU'RE having a laugh – wear a shirt!

Well-hung gym hunk gave me exhausting workout

Dear Sam,

I'm a 22-year-old single girl and I've never had much luck with the fellas.

In fact, I was a virgin until a couple of weeks ago. That's when I first went to my local gym.

I was greeted by a hunky guy who took me into the gym to show me the equipment.

Little did I know that he would be showing me his equipment a little while later!

He was soon flirting with me. I responded and he told me he wanted to shag me.

I said I'd like that and he led me to an office. He locked the door, lay me on the desk and began to lick me out.

Then he stood up and dropped his trousers – and that's when I first saw his massive cock.

When I explained that I was a virgin, he told me he'd be gentle. It was brilliant feeling him inside me and he gave me an orgasm before he withdrew and spunked his man-milk over my tits.

Now I'm thinking of letting him take me up the arse as well. Do you think I should?

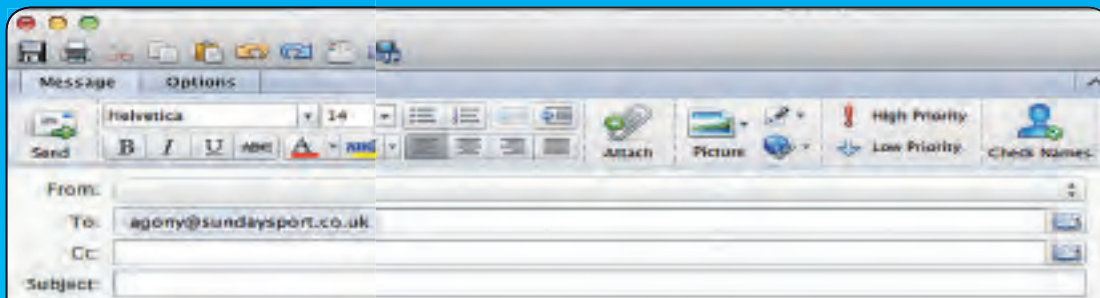

TC, Birmingham

Sam says...

WOW, you're a quick learner!

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week SAM TYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

I enjoy lesbo lust more than sex with men

Dear Sam,

I'M a horny 26-year-old woman and have three lovers – male ones that is.

But I've just recently discovered I'm bisexual and now I also have a female lover.

What's more, I've noticed that a certain edge has gone off the orgasms I'm having with all my different men.

For instance, when one of my boyfriends was licking me out the other night, I kept thinking of how my new girlfriend did it so much better.

It all started when this woman started work at my firm. We had lunch one day and as we walked back to the office she started to talk about sex.

I told her how I love to have a big cock in my mouth and another in my pussy – and if it's timed right they climax at the same time.

Then she told me about all the men she has shagged. All the sex talk got me horny and she suddenly asked me if I'd tasted a woman's pussy.

I said I hadn't and one thing led to another and that evening I found myself round at her house, a bit nervous but also excited about what might happen.

We had a few glasses of wine and then she led me upstairs into her bedroom, where we both stripped off and fondled each other's breasts.

Juices

Then I lay back on her bed and spread my legs as she licked me out.

The first lick of my clit told me I was going to love it, and it wasn't long before I enjoyed my first pulsating orgasm brought on by a woman.

And when I kissed and licked her shaven pussy, I found the taste of her juices was every bit as good as a man's hot spunk.

Then we climbed into the 69 position and got to work on each other with our tongues and fingers.

I had several more orgasms before we both collapsed exhausted into each other's arms.

I had never felt so turned-on and the next evening I went to see her again. This time she used a vibro and I had another amazing orgasm.

But the next time I was with one of my male lovers I found that the orgasms were not as good.

Should I give up sex with this woman to bring back the orgasms I used to get with men?

FL, Essex

Sam says...

WHY not have a threesome and have the best of both worlds.

Dear Sam,

I WAS recently made unemployed. I'm 23, with 32DD boobs and long red curly hair – and didn't enjoy packing biscuits anyway.

Last week I was approached by a fella in a bar who said if I wanted to make some easy money, become a part-time hooker.

He said I could make a fortune from selling my body and offered me £50 to shag him.

I went to his house and he asked if he could film me in some raunchy poses.

One thing led to another and I found myself in ecstasy with this fella sucking on my clit.

Then he got out a huge dildo and suggested penetrating my arsehole as he screwed me.

I let him use it on my arse and I was soon screaming with delight.

The next day I went to his house and he called in a blonde girl.

She pulled off all my clothes and started sucking on my tits.

Pretty soon she had a dildo in my bum and was lapping at my clit. It was a real turn-on.

I asked if she was a prostitute, but she said she was his wife.

Now they both want to pay me for sex.

What should I do?

JB, Devon

Sam says...

IT'S up to you, but it's probably better than packing biscuits.

I serviced car and the horny owner

Dear Sam,

I'M a 32-year-old motor mechanic and the other day this right stunner came into my garage.

Her silver sports car had broken down but it only needed a few bunged-up plugs changing.

I told her I would have to take her motor for a spin as a final check. She joined me and I couldn't believe my luck when she invited me to her flat later.

She told me to come in my overalls and not to wash. I thought it was a bit strange, but if it meant that I was going to get a shag I was up for it.

When I got to her place my spanner was already well hard and I was revved up when she put her hands inside my overalls.

She stripped off and took my throbbing dick between her soft lips and began sucking me off expertly.

Gulped

I managed to hold on for about 10 minutes, then I released my handbrake and unleashed my love fluid and watched as she gulped it down.

She then led me to her bedroom and told me to lie on the bed while she went to her bathroom. She came back clutching a can of oil and massaged me with it.

I was soon rock-hard again and I flipped her over, slipped my drive shaft right up her crank casing and gave her a damn good servicing.

The next morning I asked for her number, but she refused and said it was a one-off. What can I do?

BW, Cumbria

Sam says...

NOTHING – I'm sure you'll soon find someone else to satisfy your sex drive.

'I like the camera between my legs for a close-up of my pussy 'n' bum!'

...WITH ZUZANNA DRABINOVA, 29 36DD-25-35 FROM EDGWARE, NORTH LONDON

I GET so turned on when I film myself having sex!
I'm a very visual person and I love watching porn.
I get a thrill once the camera is pointing at me – it brings out my exhibitionist side and I feel like a sexy, wild porn star where anything goes!

Bouncing
I usually set things up so that what the camera is recording is playing on my big-screen telly. What I especially love is the reverse cowgirl position when making a sex tape – that way I can see myself on the screen, my titties bouncing everywhere and his dick pounding in and out of my pussy. It's sooo hot!

Another extremely arousing thing to capture is me laid on my back and the camera positioned between my open legs to get a close-up of my pussy and bum.
The guy penetrates me from above, not getting in the way of the shot, capturing my pussy – or arse – getting banged.
I think I've more sex tapes of myself than Jenna Jameson!

BUSTY Brooke Lea has the most jaw-dropping curves – so it's no wonder she likes to flash the flesh in PUBLIC!

The 25-year-old blonde scorching admitted she has a bit of an exhibitionist side and loves squeezing her huge boobs into revealing clothes and get ogled.

Brooke, from Taunton, Somerset, said her breasts always get plenty of attention whenever she's out and about.

But considering they measure a whopping 32FF, we're not surprised one little bit!

The gorgeous glamour babe said: "I absolutely love showing off my body – especially my boobs – and I don't mind at all when I catch men drooling over them in public."

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day. Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of nosh as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

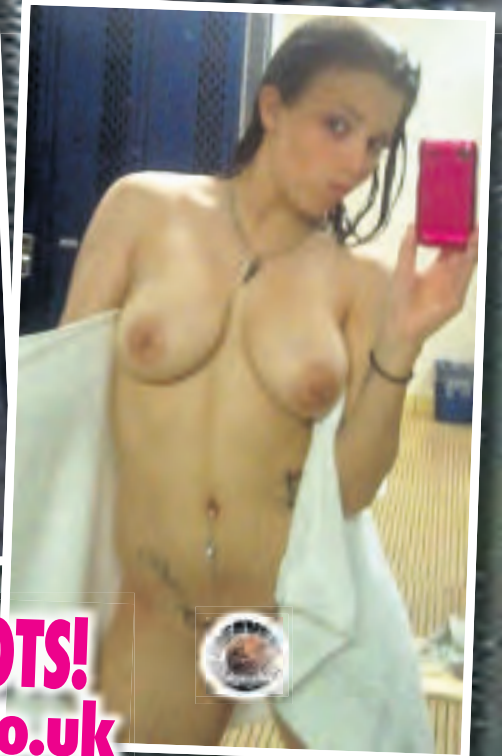

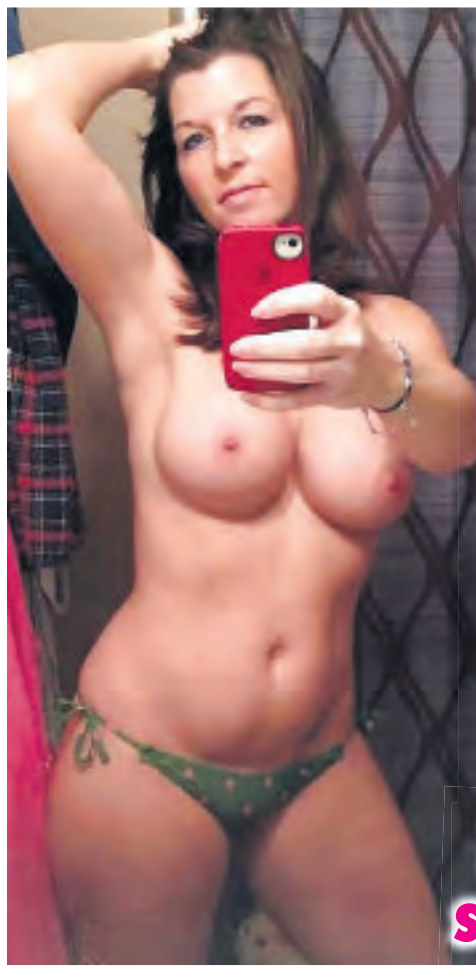

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

The 38-year-old bricklayer, from Headingley, Leeds, wanted a photo of 27-year-old Weymouth babe Carli's 32Cs to show workmates.

He said: "Can I please have a photo of Carli? My workmates reckon Tyra Banks is the hottest Banksey, but I'm determined to prove them wrong."

He said: "Lauren is one of my favourite Sport babes, so when she strutted into the shop last week I had an instant rock-on."

He said: "She's got plenty of skin left uncovered and I'd be happy to fill it up."

"Although if she popped into my studio, I think I'd have to close for the day – there'll be more than a tattoo needle prodding her if she came in!"

Werner faces fitness fight to face Kop

By JOHN ANTHONY

TIMO Werner is facing a race against time to be fit for Chelsea's weekend clash with Liverpool.

The 24-year-old picked up a dead leg in the opening 3-1 win against Brighton that has needed ice treatment.

Boss Frank Lampard is hopeful of fielding his new striker against the Reds but it's clearly touch and go.

He said: "Timo took the knock when he won the penalty. It's more of a dead leg we hope so I wouldn't think too much in terms of next week there."

"I would like to think if it's a dead leg we've got a bit of time for him to get back and right and he obviously finished the game from having that earlyish kind of knock."

Werner himself is desperate to take on the champions and says he'll do whatever it takes to get on the pitch.

Hurt

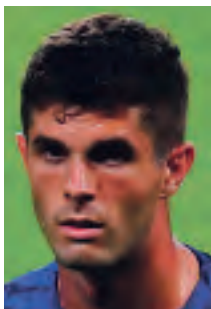

The game has added spice for him because Liverpool snubbed the chance to buy him before he went to Stamford Bridge.

Werner said: "The knee of the goalkeeper hit me directly in the muscle and it went very hard."

"It hurt a lot and I couldn't do some movements because the muscle went very hard."

"Of course I'll be ready for Liverpool. In games like this, you're always fit."

It's a similar story with Christian Pulisic

CROCKED: Pulisic

who was missing against the Seagulls as he struggles in his comeback.

The America international pulled a hamstring in the FA Cup final last month and hasn't been in full training for long.

A setback means he is likely to be on the bench at best against the Reds.

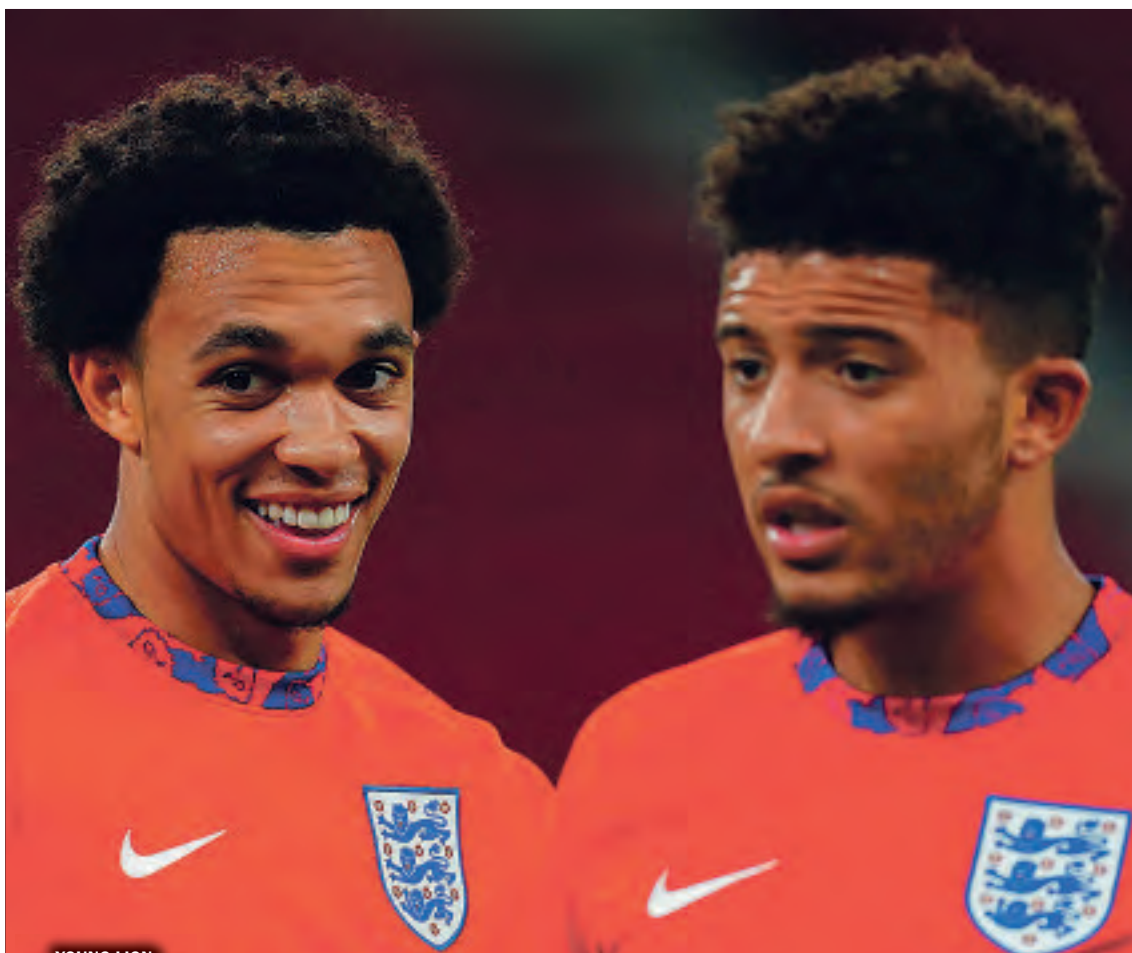

Lampard added: "Christian was training with us last week, but he had a little bit of discomfort a couple of days ago where he was trying to train with us and being in contention."

"But he's had to take a few steps back so we'll have to see so that's one I don't have big news on at the minute. We'll see."

Lampard has plenty of walking wounded at the moment with summer signings Hakim Ziyech, Ben Chilwell and Thiago Silva all struggling for fitness.

UNITED NO GO OVER SANCHO

Reds look to Bale as Jadon deal sours

By PAUL THOMAS

MANCHESTER United face an uphill battle to sign Jadon Sancho before the window closes on October 5.

That's because Borussia Dortmund sporting director Sebastian Kehl waded in, saying the England winger will be staying in Germany.

United have been in the hunt for the 20-year-old for months and it looked as though a deal was about to be done.

The transfer fee has always been the big sticking point with Dortmund asking for £110 and the Reds looking to shell out nearer the £80m mark. Old Trafford supremo

Ed Woodward is not keen to pay top dollar for any player in the current Covid climate.

That means boss Ole Gunnar Solskjaer may have to wait until next summer to get his man.

Kehl said: "Jadon Sancho will play for Dortmund this season."

"Manchester United have not submitted a new bid to sign him."

And team manager Lucien Favre is certainly planning for the next season with Sancho in the team.

He said: "We need him, no question. Everyone was happy that he stayed. We don't need to talk long about its qualities – they are enormous. He scores and sets up a lot of goals and can often make all the difference."

"But there are some details that Sancho needs to improve. That is quite normal for a 20-year-old."

Solskjaer hasn't given up hope yet and is still pushing to get Sancho to Old Trafford in the next couple of weeks.

And the off-field issues with rising star Mason Greenwood means he could do with more options in attack.

That could yet lead to a late move for Gareth Bale as Solskjaer tries to beef up his attacking options.

The Welshman is surplus to requirements at Real Madrid and the Spaniards are doing all they can to get rid of him.

They are offering to pay half his massive £600,000 per week wages and may even let the 31-year-old leave the Bernabeu on a free transfer.

He could be a good option on loan for this season while the Sancho deal is done.

United are short of experience in attack where Greenwood, Marcus Rashford and Daniel James would be helped by a wise head alongside them.

With his four Champions League titles, that could be Bale and he wouldn't cost the earth thanks to Madrid's wages offer.

BIG TALENT:
Rodriguez is a huge signing

AN entertaining start to the Premier League but what did we learn from the opening weekend?

Fulham and West Brom didn't look up to the speed of the Premier League and both look set for the drop although I appreciate both teams will add to their squads between now and the end of the transfer window at the beginning of October.

West Brom are 5/6 to be relegated at Paddy Power and Betfair and that is far too big. Fulham are 8/11 to be playing Championship football next term and that is also attractive although the layers don't allow doubles.

Purpose

The weekend also told me that the sporting press are cowards and not one had the balls to criticise the respective teams picked by Jurgen Klopp and Jose Mourinho.

Klopp gave Leeds no credence in picking a midfield of Jordan Henderson – palpably not match fit – Naby Keita – not interested in defending – and Gini Wijnaldum – still living off his three Champions League semi-final goals – and they looked a different side when Fabinho brought on a semblance of authority and purpose to the midfield.

That said take nothing away from the brilliance of some of Leeds attacking play and they are 4/11 with Skybet – from 1/2 – to be the top promoted side this season.

Jose Mourinho slaughtered his players after their pitiful performance against Everton saying they weren't fit yet nobody in his press conference had the gumption to ask – why weren't they fit?

Why did you pick Harry Winks – surely one of the most overrated footballers in the world – who never laid a glove on Everton's new-look midfield.

I appreciate I am biased as I feel Mourinho is "yesterday's man" and he will take Spurs backwards – albeit slowly as they still have a number of very good players.

Everton and their new-look midfield were made to look world beaters. This is one Evertonian who won't be getting carried away and I feel a truer barometer of their ability, progress and expectations will come after their visit to Selhurst Park in a fortnight's time.

The Premier League season long handicap market is a terrific market as it asks punters who do you think will overachieve this term.

The odds from BetVictor are below.

To those new to the market Manchester City start on scratch – Liverpool +2 – and each team is allocated a handicap/points mark which is added to their points accrued in the Premier League at the end of the season. The winning team is the club with the highest score.

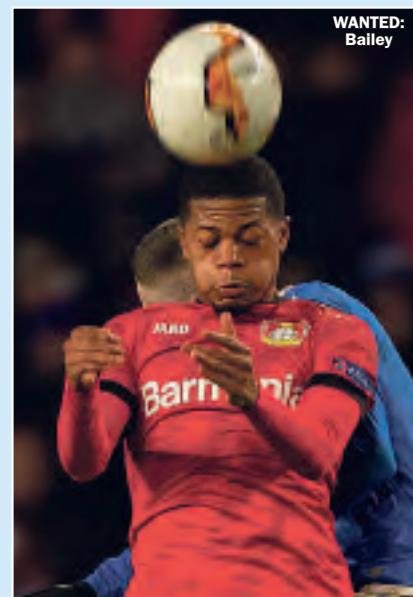

Teams include:
 Everton +36..... 8/1
 Chelsea +36..... 8/1
 Arsenal +24..... 10/1
 Man United +16..... 12/1
 Newcastle Utd +48..... 12/1
 Leeds +42..... 12/1
 Wolves +30..... 14/1
 Liverpool +2..... 14/1
 Leicester +32..... 16/1
 Spurs +24..... 25/1
 Fulham +54..... 33/1

As stated previously it is too early to get carried away with Everton and my two against the field are Wolves (+30) and Leicester (+32) at 14s and 16/1 respectively.

It is a cracking market and the each way terms are quarter the odds four places.

MONSTER MAD FOR SPURS SWITCH

By ANDY MILLOM

TOTTENHAM are stepping up their efforts to sign South Korea defender Kim Min-jae.

He's a close pal of Spurs striker Son Heung-min and has been earning rave reviews in the heart of Chinese side Beijing Guoan's defence.

His main asset is his height as the 23-year-old is a towering six foot, three tall – earning him the nickname "monster" in China.

Spurs have looked at him before but under-fire boss Jose Mourinho wants to shell out £10m to fill a position he's short in – unlike the monster.

The Chinese side want double that amount which is the sticking point and they have deep pockets so don't have to sell.

For the deal to happen, the player himself needs to agitate for the move and insiders say he's very keen on moving to the Premier League.

Tottenham face stiff competition from Lazio with the Italians making an offer closer to the asking price.

But Spurs have the Son link in their favour and should be able to pull off the deal – If they up their bid to £15m.

Mourinho has been pretty quiet in the window with low-key moves for veteran Joe Hart, while Pierre-Emile Hojbjerg and Matt Doherty are hardly players to set pulses racing at White Hart Lane.

That could change if Bayer Leverkusen winger Leon Bailey arrives at the club.

The 23-year-old stars for the Jamaican national side and has done well in the Bundesliga.

He is looking for a move to England and could be ideal for Tottenham.

The problem is the

TARGET: Kim Min-jae

Germans are asking for £40m – which looks a little steep in the current market.

Mourinho would move for Bailey but not at that price tag.

Everton were linked with him earlier in the window but have gone cold since bringing in James Rodriguez.

Spurs are looking increasingly desperate up front and the latest rumour is linking them with a bid for Danny Ings.

The Southampton striker scored 22 goals last season but he would also be out of their price range at north of £25m.

Plunge on Mourinho being first sacked

BOOKIES have had to slash their odds on Jose Mourinho being the first boss sacked after an avalanche of bets.

Tottenham kicked off the season with a shocking home performance and defeat against Everton. It was the first time the Toffees had beaten one of the so-called top six on the road for more than FIVE years.

By JOHN ANTHONY

The poor effort on the pitch was backed up Jose tearing into his players — and that's normally a sure sign that Mourinho is on his way to the exit. Bookies have been forced to cut the Special One into their 6-1 second favourite to be the first Premier League boss to get the bullet.

Before the Everton game, he was a massive 33-1 to be the first gaffer being handed his P45 this season.

After fortunes came into the bookies, that price has collapsed into just 6-1 and falling fast.

It all means tomorrow night's Europa League clash with Lokomotiv Plovdiv has become a really important game.

Lose that and Mourinho is likely to be hot favourite for the chop — especially if he has another moan about the effort of his players.
